FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY

CLAIM FORM

USE BLUE OR BLACK ONLY

- If you bought E-book(s) through Amazon, Apple, Barnes & Noble, Kobo or Sony, you are not required to file a Claim Form to participate in the Settlements. You will receive an automatic credit or check.
- If you bought E-book(s) through Google, you are required to file a Claim Form to participate in the Settlements and you must provide the Settlement ID number that was sent to you in an email, but you are not required to provide your E-book purchase details.
- If you bought E-book(s) through any other retailer, you may complete an online Claim Form at www.EbooksAGSettlements.com or complete and mail this Claim Form in order to receive a settlement payment.
- Visit www.EbooksAGSettlements.com to learn more about your rights and options under the Settlements.

I. GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

A. You are an Eligible Consumer and could qualify for money from the Settlements if:
   1. You purchased an E-book that was published by Hachette, HarperCollins, Simon & Schuster, Penguin, or Macmillan (as well as all other names under which these publishers also publish E-books. Visit www.EbooksAGSettlements.com to review a complete list of Publishers and their imprints.), and
   2. The purchase was made from April 1, 2010 through May 21, 2012, and
   3. You were a resident of 1) a state other than Minnesota, 2) the District of Columbia, or 3) one of the five U.S. Territories and Commonwealths at the time of purchase. (Your residency for these Settlements is determined by the billing address on the credit card you used for your purchases.)

B. You must submit a separate Claim Form for each retailer through which you bought E-books.[1]
