A.G. Schneiderman's Tips for Choosing Energy Suppliers

- Consumers are not required to choose an alternative supplier
- Marketers cannot pretend to contact you on behalf of your current utility company
- Marketers should identify which company they work for
- Beware of high pressure sales tactics to persuade you
- Get savings offers in writing
- Do your own research and compare rates
- Companies are required to provide a Consumer Bill of Rights in writing
- Residents have 3 days after accepting offer to cancel without cost

Office of the Attorney General
Eric T. Schneiderman