

TEXT OF REVISED REGULATIONS

The following are the Department of Law's revisions to 13 N.Y.C.R.R. Part 11. Please note that pursuant to Department of State guidelines, deleted portions of existing text are in brackets, additions to existing text are underlined, and new additions to 13 N.Y.C.R.R. Part 11 are normally formatted.

Section 11.1 of title 13 is amended to read as follows:

§ 11.1 General provisions and definitions

(a) Effective date. The revisions to [T]this Part shall go into effect [become effective] on February 1, 2021
[upon legal adoption].

(b) Short title. Chapter 961 of the Laws of 1960, as amended, when referred to in all rules and regulations promulgated by the Attorney General relating thereto, shall be referred to as the "New York Investment Advisory Act."

(c) Administration. The Invest[ment]or Protection Bureau of the Department of Law shall be responsible for the administration of the New York Investment Advisory Act. Whenever in this Part there is reference to a submission of filing with the Department of Law, this shall mean the Invest[ment]or Protection Bureau, 28 Liberty Street, New York, NY 10005 or the designee.

(d) Designation. The Attorney General may by regulation, rule or order designate the web-based Investment Advisor Registration Depository ("IARD") or Central Registration Depository ("CRD") operated by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA") to receive and store filings and collect related fees from investment advisers and investment adviser representatives, on behalf of the Attorney General. (Information regarding CRD is available at <https://www.finra.org>. Information regarding IARD is available at www.sec.gov and www.iard.com).

Section 11.2 of title 13 is amended to read as follows:

§ 11.2 Use of CRD/IARD

(a) Unless otherwise provided, all investment adviser and investment adviser representative applications, amendments, reports, notices, related filings and fees required to be filed with the Attorney General pursuant to the rules promulgated under this section, shall be filed electronically with and transmitted to CRD/IARD. The following additional conditions relate[d] to such electronic filings:

(1) Electronic signature. When a signature or signatures are required by the particular instructions of any filing to be made through the CRD/IARD, a duly authorized officer of the applicant or the applicant him or herself, as required, shall affix his or her electronic signature to the filing by typing his or her name in the appropriate fields and submitting the filing to CRD/IARD. Submission of a filing in this manner shall constitute irrefutable evidence of legal signature by any individuals whose names are typed on the filing.

(2) When filed. Solely for purposes of a filing made through CRD/IARD, a document is considered filed with the Attorney General when all fees are received and the filing is [accepted by IARD on behalf of] approved by the State.

(3) Electronic filing. [Notwithstanding this subdivision, the electronic filing of any particular document and the collection of related processing fees shall not be required until such time as IARD provides for receipt of such filings and fees and thirty (30) days notice is provided by the Department or its designee.] Any documents or fees required to be filed with the Department of Law that are not permitted to be filed with or cannot be accepted by CRD/IARD shall be filed directly with the Department of Law.

(b) Approval Process. Filings made through the CRD/IARD system shall be reviewed for completeness by the CRD/IARD system. All applications for registration meeting all existing requirements and qualifications shall be reviewed on a case-by-case basis for approval. Advisors submitting the filings shall be notified of deficiencies and required to correct same. Failure to correct any deficiencies pursuant to sections 11.4 (a)-(h),

11.6, 11.7, 11.8, 11.9 or 11.14 of this Part, or other submissions within one hundred eighty (180) days from receipt by the Department of Law or its designee will result in the [withdrawal] abandonment of the registration and will require a completely new filing. No refunds will be made for filings that are either withdrawn [either] on a voluntary basis or abandoned as a result of the failure to correct deficiencies.

Section 11.4 of title 13 is amended to read as follows:

§ 11.4 Registration information

(a) Initial application. The application for initial registration as an investment adviser pursuant to these rules shall be made by completing Form ADV (Uniform Application for Investment Adviser Registration) (17 C.F.R. 279.1) in accordance with the form instructions and by filing the form with CRD/IARD. The application for initial registration as an investment adviser representative pursuant to these rules shall be made by completing Form U4 in accordance with the form instructions and by filing the form with CRD/IARD. (Both Form ADV: General Instructions and the General Instructions for Part 2 of Form ADV are published by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, 100 F Street, NE Washington, DC 20549. Form U4 Uniform Application for Securities Industry Registration or Transfer General Instructions is published by FINRA, 1735 K St NW, Washington, DC 20006. These instructions are viewable at <https://ag.ny.gov/forms>).

[(1) Portions of Form ADV not yet accepted by IARD. Until IARD provides for the filing of Part 2 of Form ADV, the Department of Law requires the filing of Part 2 of Form ADV in paper form.]

(b) Time for filing. Unless an application for a new investment adviser representative is filed in accordance with subdivision (i), [A]an investment adviser or investment adviser representative application[, should] must be filed with CRD/IARD [no less than ten (10) days] and approved by the State prior to engaging in investment advisory activities in the State of New York.

(c) Where registration required. All investment advisers and solicitors with more than five (5) clients in the State of New York must make application to register as an investment adviser, unless such solicitor is a federally covered investment adviser, or is otherwise exempt from registration with the State under § 11.13. All principals, investment adviser representatives and supervisors must apply for registration in connection with their representation of any investment adviser or solicitor. All investment adviser representatives for a federally covered investment adviser must apply for registration in connection with their representation.

(d) Annual renewal. The application for annual renewal as an investment adviser, solicitor and investment adviser representative shall be filed with CRD/IARD. The application for annual renewal registration shall include the required fee and any other information the Department of Law may reasonably require.

(e) Length of registration. The registration is for a calendar year or for that remaining part of the calendar year in which it is submitted.

(f) Updates and amendments.

(1) [An investment] Investment advisers and solicitors must file with CRD/IARD, in accordance with the instructions in the Form ADV, any amendments to the investment adviser's Form ADV.

(2) All investment adviser representatives, and all principals and supervisors for any investment adviser, must file Form U4 or U5, as appropriate, on CRD/IARD and must amend such forms in accordance with the respective form's instructions. (Form U5 Uniform Termination Notice for Securities Industry Registration General Instructions published by FINRA, 1735 K St NW, Washington, DC 20006 are viewable at <https://ag.ny.gov/forms>.)

([2]3) An amendment will be considered to be filed promptly if the amendment is filed within thirty (30) days of the event that requires the filing of the amendment.

([3]4) Investment advisers and solicitors must file with CRD/IARD, an updated Form ADV within [Within] ninety (90) days after the end of the investment['s] adviser['s] or solicitor's fiscal year[, an investment adviser must file with IARD, an updated Form ADV].

(g) Completion of filing. An application for initial or renewal registration is not considered filed for purposes of these rules until the required fee and all required submissions have been received and accepted by the Department of Law or the designee.

(h) Single person firms set up as sole proprietorships need only pay the fee for the investment adviser, not the investment adviser representative, but must file both Form ADV and Form U4, and follow all other requirements for investment advisers and investment adviser representatives as detailed herein. The foregoing does not apply if the firm is incorporated or organized as a limited liability company.

(i) Implementation Period. Except as provided below, any person who, prior to February 1, 2021, was serving continuously and permissibly in any capacity covered under this Part, and who, through continued service, is subject to the registration requirements under this Part on or after February 1, 2021, may continue such service without an approved registration until December 2, 2021 without violating the registration provisions of GBL § 359-eee or this Part, so long as a Form U4 requesting investment adviser representative registration in New York for that person is submitted on or before August 31, 2021. Should an applicant be notified of a non-examination related deficiency in the application, the applicant will have fourteen (14) days to correct such deficiency and communicate the correction to the Department of Law. Any applicant whose application is denied, or who fails to correct the deficiency and communicate the correction within fourteen (14) days, and who continues to engage in activity requiring registration after notification of such denial or expiration of those fourteen days, shall be in violation of this Part and GBL § 359-eee. Applicants with examination-related deficiencies must correct such deficiencies in accordance with the requirements of section 11.6 or 11.7 of this Part. Nothing in this section shall excuse, relieve or limit liability of any person who violated examination or registration requirements in existence prior to February 1, 2021, nor shall it provide any extension, grace period or waiver to such person.

Section 11.5 of title 13 is amended to read as follows:

§ 11.5 Notice filing requirements for federally covered investment advisers

(a) Notice filing. The notice filing for a federally covered investment adviser shall be filed with CRD/IARD on an electronically signed Form ADV (Uniform Application for Investment Adviser Registration (17 C.F.R. 279.1)). All federally covered investment advisers with more than five (5) clients in the State of New York must notice file. A notice filing of a federally covered investment adviser shall be deemed filed when the fee required and the Form ADV are filed with and accepted by CRD/IARD on behalf of the S[s]tate.

[(1) portions of Form ADV not yet accepted by IARD. Until IARD provides for the filing of Part 2 of Form ADV, the Department of Law requires the filing of Part 2 of Form ADV in paper form.]

(b) Renewal. The annual renewal of the notice filing for a federally covered investment adviser shall be filed with CRD/IARD. The renewal of the notice filing for a federally covered investment adviser shall be deemed filed when the fee required is filed and accepted on behalf of the state.

(c) Updates and amendments. A federally covered investment adviser must file with CRD/IARD, in accordance with the instructions in the Form ADV, any amendments to the federally covered investment adviser's Form ADV. A federally covered investment adviser shall submit their amendments pursuant to U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission requirements.

(d) Investment adviser representatives representing a federally covered investment adviser must satisfy examination requirements or receive a waiver, and must register in accordance with this Part.

Section 11.6 of title 13 is amended to read as follows:

§ 11.6 Investment adviser examination requirements

(a) Examination Requirement. Every principal of an investment adviser or solicitor [who is required to register in this jurisdiction], and every investment adviser representative, including persons representing solicitors, and every supervisor [who is an individual, and every individual who represents a state registered investment adviser in doing any of the acts which makes that person an investment adviser as defined in section 11.12(f), or solicits business for an investment adviser and] who is required to register in this jurisdiction and who does not qualify for a waiver pursuant to section 11.7 of this Part, must take and receive a passing grade within two (2) years prior to the date of filing registration information pursuant to section 11.4(c) on:

- (1) the Uniform Investment Adviser Law Examination (Series 65 examination); or
- (2) the Securities Industry Essentials Examination, the General Securities Representative Examination (Series 7 examination) and the Uniform Combined State Law Examination (Series 66 examination).

[(b) Every investment adviser registered and who is an individual, and every individual who represented a State registered investment adviser in doing any of the acts as defined in section 11.12(f), or who solicited business for an investment adviser in this jurisdiction prior to July 1, 2003, and who does not qualify for a waiver pursuant to section 11.7, must take and receive a passing grade by July 1, 2004 on

- (1) the Uniform Investment Adviser Law Examination(s) (Series 65 examination(s)); or
- (2) the General Securities Representative Examination (Series 7 examination) and the Uniform Combined State Law Examination (Series 66 examination).]

(b) Extended Compliance Period. In accordance with 11.4(i), every natural person who, prior to February 1, 2021, was serving continuously and permissibly in any capacity covered under this Part, and who, through continued service, is subject to the registration and examination requirements of this Part on or after February 1,

2021, and who does not qualify for a waiver pursuant to section 11.7, must take and receive a passing grade by December 2, 2021 on the examinations required under paragraph (a) of this section.

Section 11.7 of title 13 is replaced in its entirety with the following:

§ 11.7 Waivers

(a) Prior Registration. A natural person who otherwise is required to meet the examination requirements of 11.6 of this Part shall be exempt from such requirements upon application to, and approval by, the Department of Law, provided that such person has been continuously registered to provide investment advice in any jurisdiction for a period of at least two (2) years prior to the date of filing registration information pursuant to section 11.4(c); has not had any lapse in registration exceeding two (2) years; and is not, and has not been, subject to any regulatory or civil action, proceeding or arbitration, either pending or in the preceding ten (10) years from the date of such application, that would require disclosure on Form U4.

(b) Special Waiver. Every natural person otherwise required to meet the examination requirements of 11.6(a) of this Part and who, in the regular course of business, acted as an investment adviser representative from a place of business in the State continuously and permissibly for at least two (2) years prior to February 1, 2021 and who is not eligible for any other waiver under this section, may be exempted from the provisions of section 11.6 of this Part upon application to, and approval by, the Department of Law. No person shall qualify for a waiver under this subdivision (b) if:

- (1) That person submits an application for registration after August 31, 2021; or
- (2) That person's investment advisory activities during the two (2) years preceding December 2, 2020 were limited to serving or acting as a solicitor; or
- (3) That person, for two (2) or more continuous years in the four (4) years preceding the filing of registration information, had ceased performing acts as defined in section 11.12(f) of this Part in the regular course of business from a place of business in the State; or
- (4) That person currently is or has been subject to any regulatory or civil action, proceeding or arbitration, either pending or in the preceding ten (10) years from the date of such application, that would require disclosure on Form U4, or that person has been notified or has reason to believe that they currently are or remain the subject of a regulatory or law enforcement investigation related to investment related activities.

(c) Certification. The examination requirement of section 11.6 shall not apply to any natural person who currently holds one of the following professional designations in good standing:

- (1) Certified Financial Planner (CFP) awarded by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc.;
- (2) Chartered Financial Consultant (ChFC) awarded by the American College, Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania;
- (3) Personal Financial Specialist (PFS) awarded by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants;
- (4) Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) awarded by the Association for Investment Management Research;
- (5) Chartered Investment Counselor (CIC) awarded by the Investment Adviser Association; or
- (6) Such other professional designation as the administrator may by rule or order recognize.

(d) Application for Waiver. Applicant waiver eligibility under subdivisions (a) and (c) of section 11.7 shall be automatically directed to the Department of Law for evaluation and approval through the Form U4 submission in CRD/IARD. All requests for special waivers under subdivision (b) of section 11.7 must be submitted directly to the Department of Law on Form NY-IASW at the time of submission of the Form U4, unless otherwise directed by the Department of Law. Nothing in this section shall automatically revoke any examination waiver granted by the Department of Law prior to February 1, 2021 pursuant to Form NY-IAQ.

Section 11.8 of title 13 is amended to read as follows:

§ 11.8 Filing fees

(a) The fees for initial and annual renewal registrations under this Part [filed directly with the Department of Law or its designee] are $ 200 and must be paid through CRD/IARD. [Checks should be made payable to the New York State Department of Law or its designee and need not be certified.]

Section 11.9 of title 13 is amended to read as follows:

§ 11.9 Record keeping requirements

(a) All of the following books and records must be maintained and preserved in an easily accessible place for a period of not less than five (5) years from last transaction or publication, the first two (2) years in an appropriate office of the investment adviser. Before ceasing operations, the invest[or]ment adviser must arrange for maintenance and preservation and be responsible for all books and records for the full period described above:

- (1) Journals, ledgers and underlying documentation for entries; annual financial statements (including trial balances and internal working papers), business tax returns (income & employer taxes);
- (2) Check books, bank statements, canceled checks, reconciliations;
- (3) All bills and statements, paid or unpaid;
- (4) Employment records. Records should include, but are not limited to, a list of all individuals who give investment advice on behalf of the applicant in this jurisdiction;
- (5) Record of complaints organized by complainant. These records should include, but are not limited to any regulatory or disciplinary action against any individuals who give investment advice on behalf of the applicant in this jurisdiction;
- (6) A list or record of all accounts in which the investment adviser is vested with any discretionary power with respect to the funds, securities or transactions of any client;
- (7) A copy of each notice, circular, advertisement, newspaper article, investment letter, bulletin or other communication that the investment advis[er] circulates or distributes, directly or indirectly to five (5) or more persons. If purchase or sale of a specific security is recommended and the reason is not stated, there must be a memorandum indicating the reason. The investment adviser is not required to keep a record of the names and addresses the notice, circular, letter or other communication is sent to, except if it is distributed to persons named on any list, then a memorandum describing the list and its source should be retained with the notice, circular, letter or other communication;

(8) All written agreements entered into by the investment adviser with the client or otherwise relating to the business of the investment adviser;

(9) Record of every transaction in a security in which the investment adviser has or by reason of such transaction acquires, any direct or indirect beneficial ownership (not including accounts over which the investment adviser has no control or influence or transactions in securities which are direct obligations of the United States). The record shall state the title and amount of security involved; date and nature of transaction; price at which it was effected; name of broker, dealer or bank. The transaction must be recorded not later than ten (10) days after the end of the calendar quarter in which the transaction was effected. The record may contain the statement that this is not an admission of direct or indirect beneficial ownership in the security;

(10) A copy of each written statement and each amendment or revision, given or sent to any client or prospective client and a record of the dates that each written statement, was given or offered;[.]

(11) All accounts, books, internal working papers and any other records or documents necessary to form the basis for or to demonstrate the calculation of the performance or rate of return of any or all managed accounts or securities recommendations in any notice, circular or letter. Investment records including documentation and verification of all claims of investment performance record or any projections made to client(s);

(12) Certificates or other documentation for continuing education;

(13) Client file should contain:

(i) Written contract--must be original;

(ii) All correspondence to or from client;

(iii) All powers of attorney and any other evidence of the granting of discretionary authority;

- (iv) Memorandum of each order given by investment adviser for purchase or sale of any security; any instruction from the client concerning the purchase, sale, delivery or receipt of a particular security, and of any modification or cancellation of orders or instructions. (Must show terms and conditions of the order, instruction, modification or cancellation, identify the person connected with the investment adviser who recommended the transaction to the client and the person who placed the order, the account, the date, entity that executed it, duly noted if entered pursuant to discretionary power);
- (v) Brokerage, bank statements;
- (vi) All written acknowledgements of receipt obtained from clients and copies of disclosure documents;
- (vii) Risk analysis for each client;
- (viii) Records of fees charged, collected;
- (ix) Recommendations to clients including but not limited to portfolio review analyses;
- (x) Investments made on behalf of clients;
- (xi) If known--name of client broker, bank, accountant, insurance agent, prior investments, real estate, mortgages, amounts of coverage, assumed tax brackets, significant family relationships including ages;
- (xii) Assets managed;
- (xiii) Unusual material items affecting cash flow;
- (xiv) Person responsible for the account; [and]
- (xv) Record of ending relationship, date; and
- (xvi) Documentation of each client's financial assets and income that support any designation made or acknowledged by the Investment Adviser of such client as an "accredited investor" (17 C.F.R. 230.501) or "qualified client" (17 CFR § 275.205-3) as those terms are defined under federal law. The investment adviser shall make and maintain documents evidencing reasonable steps to verify any designation as "accredited investor" or "qualified client" and maintain all documents reviewed in the course of such verification.

(14) Investment advisers with custody or possession of securities or funds of any client must additionally keep the following records:

- (i) Journal or other record showing all purchases, sales, receipts and deliveries of securities (including certificate numbers) for such accounts and all other debits and credits to such accounts;
- (ii) Separate ledger account for each client showing all purchases, sales, receipts and deliveries of securities, the date and price of each such purchase and sale, and all debits and credits;
- (iii) Copies of confirmations of all transactions [e]affected by or for the account of any such client; and
- (iv) A record for each security in which any client has a position showing the name of each client having any interest in each security, the amount or interest of each such client, and the location of each security.

(15) Investment advisers who render investment supervisory or management service must keep the following records (with respect to the portfolio):

- (i) Records showing separately for each such client the securities bought and sold, the date, amount and price of each such purchase and sale; and
- (ii) For each security in which the client has a current position, information from which the investment adviser can promptly furnish the name of such client and the current amount or interest of such client.

(16) Upon the Department of Law's request for any records maintained pursuant to this section, such records shall be filed with the Investor Protection Bureau of the Department of Law within ten (10) business days of such request or within a timeframe otherwise agreed to by the Department of Law.

Section 11.11 of title 13 is amended to read as follows:

§ 11.11 Withdrawal of registration

- (a) The application for withdrawal of registration as an investment adviser or solicitor shall be completed by following the instructions on Form ADV-W (Notice of Withdrawal from Registration as Investment Adviser) (17 C.F.R. 279.2) and filed upon Form ADV-W with CRD/IARD. Instructions for Form ADV-W are published by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, 100 F Street, NE Washington, DC 20549 and are viewable at <https://ag.ny.gov/forms>.

(14) a major United States institutional investor as defined in Rule 15a-6(b)(4)(i) (17 C.F.R. 240.15a-6(b)(4)(i)) adopted under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934;

(f) Investment adviser shall mean any person who, for compensation, engages in the business of advising members of the public, either directly or through publications or writings within or from the State of New York, as to the value of securities or as to the advisability of investing in, purchasing, or selling or holding securities, or who, for compensation and as a part of a regular business issues or promulgates analyses or reports concerning securities to members of the public within or from the State of New York.

(g) Investment adviser representative shall mean a natural person who represents:

(1) an investment adviser or solicitor in performing any of the acts that define an investment adviser under GBL § 359-eee(1)(a) or,

(2) a federally covered investment adviser from a place of business in the State and who satisfies the requirements of Rule 203A-3 (17 CFR § 275.203A-3) adopted under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

([g]h) Investment supervisory service shall mean any person giving continuous advice as to the investment of funds on the basis of individual needs of each client.

([h]i) Person shall mean a natural person, corporation, company, partnership, trust or association.

(j) Principal shall mean and include every person or entity directly or indirectly controlling an investment adviser or solicitor. Principals are subject to the same registration and examination requirements of investment adviser representatives under this part.

(k) Solicitor shall mean a person who as part of a regular business, engages in the business of providing investment advice to the limited extent that such person receives compensation for introducing a prospective investor or investors to an investment adviser or a federally covered investment adviser, unless such person would be excluded from the definition of investment adviser under an enumerated exception under GBL § 359-eee(1)(a) or § 11.13 of this part. Solicitors are subject to the same registration and examination requirements as investment advisers, and principals and representatives of solicitors are subject to the same registration and examination requirements as investment adviser representatives, under this part.

(l) Supervisor shall mean a natural person who directly supervises one or more natural persons associated with an investment adviser in their capacity as investment adviser representatives.

Section 11.13 of title 13 is amended to read as follows:

§ 11.13 Exclusions and Exemptions
