

Division of Social Justice

Civil Rights Bureau – Assistant Attorney General – New York City

Reference No. CRI_NYC_AAG_3061

The Office of the New York State Attorney General is seeking a dedicated and motivated attorney to serve in the Civil Rights Bureau in the New York City office. The Bureau enforces laws protecting New Yorkers from discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, religion, age, marital status, sexual orientation, military status, source of income, or disability. Using federal, state, and local laws, the Bureau investigates and prosecutes alleged patterns of unlawful discrimination in a variety of areas, including employment, housing, education, police services, immigrants' rights, access to credit, and places of public accommodation. Some of the more recent matters handled by the Bureau seek to promote fair housing and equal employment opportunities, disability access, reproductive rights, language access, voting rights, and LGBT rights. The Bureau also works to combat predatory lending, immigration fraud, sexual harassment in the workplace, police misconduct, religious discrimination, foreclosure scams and discriminatory policies and practices, among other things. Through community outreach, public education and advocacy efforts, the Bureau works to achieve broad civil rights compliance. The Bureau's docket reflects its commitment to combating discrimination and its effects, ensuring equality of opportunity, and promoting inclusion across New York State.

Applicants must possess no less than five (5) to seven (7) years of experience in civil litigation (including clerkships, if any) and excellent writing and organizational skills. Fluency in a second language is a plus.

Applicants must reside in (or intend to soon become a resident of) New York State and be admitted to practice law in New York State. In addition, the Public Officers Law requires that attorneys in the Office be citizens of the United States.

*Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.
The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.*

HOW TO APPLY

Applications are being received online. To apply, please click on this link: CRI NYC AAG 3061; applicants will be taken to the online application page for this position.

Applicants must be prepared to submit a complete application consisting of the following:

- Cover Letter (You may address to Sandra Jefferson Grannum, Esq., Bureau Chief, Legal Recruitment);
- Resume;
- Writing Sample;
- List of three (3) references with contact information and email addresses.

Please note: Failure to submit a complete application will delay the consideration of your application.

If you have questions regarding a position with the OAG and the application process or you need assistance with submitting your application, please contact the Legal Recruitment Bureau via email at recruitment@ag.ny.gov or phone at 212-416-8080.

For more information about the Office, please visit our website: www.ag.ny.gov.