

Investigator: Investigations - New York City

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for Investigator positions located in various locations in the State. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

Investigators, under supervision, conduct detailed investigations of the circumstances, facts and conditions connected with complaints and violations of the law, using the highest level of independent judgment and discretion. These are often highly complex and sensitive criminal matters which cross county lines and involve organized crime.

The qualifications for this specific position include: Expert interviewing and interrogation skills; extensive experience in the investigation of various types of crimes including, but not limited to, complex fraud, identity theft and money laundering; experience investigating confidential and sensitive matters; experience conducting surveillance and executing search warrants; experience working with other law enforcement agencies; having established law enforcement contacts on the local, state and federal levels within New York City Metropolitan area.

Please respond to posting number #407, as outlined below. Deadline for responding is August 5, 2014.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

Must have at least ten years of law enforcement and current NYS Basic Police School certification.

All candidates must reside in New York State at the time of appointment.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends.
