

Division of State Counsel

Litigation Bureau – Court Administration and Regulatory Enforcement Section

Assistant Attorney General – New York City

Reference No. LIT/CARE_NYC_AAG_3077

The Court Administration and Regulatory Enforcement Section of the Litigation Bureau in the New York State Office of the Attorney General is seeking an experienced litigator to serve in the New York City office. The Litigation Bureau represents the State of New York and its agencies and officers in state and federal courts in legal actions and proceedings relating to civil rights, education, social services, public employment, public health, law enforcement, corrections, state finance, insurance, taxation, and other litigated matters arising out of state operations and legislation.

Attorneys assigned to the Court Administration and Regulatory Enforcement Section primarily represent the Office of Court Administration and its related entities, Department of Financial Services, Department of Civil Service, Department of Labor, Division of Homes and Community Renewal, Division of Human Rights, and Offices of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation. The Section's attorneys defend a wide variety of state and federal court actions involving, among other things, constitutional, civil rights, labor and employment, fair housing, banking and state finance, state regulation, and administrative law issues. The Section's cases present a myriad of questions on constitutional law and statutory/regulatory interpretation, including matters of first impression, and generally have significant financial and policy implications for the State. Attorneys are responsible for all phases of litigation through trial and have frequent opportunities to present written and oral arguments in court.

The ideal candidate has at least five (5) years of federal and/or state court civil litigation experience; however, a minimum of two (2) years civil litigation experience (including clerkships) is required. Superior writing, analytic and organizational skills are also required.

Applicants must reside in (or intend to soon become a resident of) New York State and be admitted to practice law in New York State. In addition, the Public Officers Law requires that OAG attorneys be citizens of the United States.

Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.

The OAG is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.
