

Deputy Chief Investigator: Investigations – New York City

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for Investigator positions located in various locations in the State. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

Investigators, under supervision, conduct detailed investigations of the circumstances, facts and conditions connected with complaints and violations of the law, using the highest level of independent judgment and discretion. These are often highly complex and sensitive criminal matters which cross county lines and involve organized crime.

The qualifications for this specific position include: Bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice; experience supervising at least 25 subordinates involved in the investigation of various criminal activities, such as organized crime and insurance fraud; ability to effectively manage multiple investigations in a variety of disciplines; experience investigating internal affairs and corruption; facility interacting with other law enforcement agencies; and law enforcement contacts in the greater metropolitan New York City area.

Please respond to posting number #6616, as outlined below. Deadline for responding is September 16, 2013.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

Must have at least ten years of law enforcement and current NYS basic police school certification.

All candidates must reside in New York State at the time of appointment.
