

Investigator: Investigations – New York City

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for Investigator positions situated in various locations in the State. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

Investigators, under supervision, conduct detailed investigations of the circumstances, facts and conditions connected with complaints and violations of the law, using the highest level of independent judgment and discretion. These are often highly complex and sensitive criminal matters which cross county lines and involve organized crime.

This position is assigned to the Dignitary Protection Detail for the Attorney General. The qualifications for this position are: Knowledgeable in all aspects of dignitary protection; experience investigating internal affairs and cases involving hate/bias crimes; extensive experience conducting photographic, electronic and physical surveillance; expert interview and interrogation skills; proficiency in investigative databases; experience testifying before various legal bodies; and established contacts within the law enforcement community in the New York City area.

Please respond to posting number Reference No. INV_INVS_NY_6620_81515, as outlined below. Deadline for responding is August 15, 2015.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

Must have at least ten years of law enforcement and current NYS basic police school certification.

Must possess a valid NYS driver's license and have the ability to drive a motor vehicle.

The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends.

Applications are being received online. To apply, please click on this link: INV_INVS_NY_6620_81515. Applicants will be taken to the online application page for this position. Applicants must be prepared to submit a complete application packet consisting of a cover letter (include Reference No. INV_INVS_NY_6620_81515) and resume. Please note: Failure to submit a complete application will delay the consideration of your application. You may address your cover letter to Investigator Jobs.

For questions about an Investigator position with the OAG, the application process or assistance with submitting your application, please email Investigator.jobs@ag.ny.gov or call 518-776-2500.

These positions are in the exempt class, and incumbents serve at the pleasure of the Attorney General.
