

Deputy Chief Investigator: Medicaid Fraud Control Unit - New York City

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for Investigator positions located in various locations in the State. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

MFCU, the centerpiece of New York's efforts to combat Medicaid provider fraud, is looking for experienced investigators to conduct complex investigations into fraud committed by Medicaid providers and others in the healthcare industry who steal from New York State, those involved in the diversion of prescription narcotics, and to investigate and prosecute abuse and neglect of residents in nursing homes, hospitals, and other residential healthcare facilities.

The qualifications for this position are: Bachelor's degree in the Criminal Justice field; supervision experience, holding the rank of Detective Sergeant or the equivalent; extensive experience conducting stationary and moving surveillance; experience conducting internal and criminal investigations; proficient in financial and money laundering investigations; experience with dignitary protection; and, having established contacts within the law enforcement community in the New York City area.

Please respond to posting number #7011, as outlined below. Deadline for responding is May 19, 2015.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

Must have at least ten years of law enforcement and current NYS basic police school certification.

Must possess a valid NYS driver's license and have the ability to drive a motor vehicle.

The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends.
