

Investigator - Auto Insurance Fraud Unit (AIFU), NYC

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for Investigator positions located in various locations in the State. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

In 2001, in response to the increase in no-fault insurance fraud, the governor signed Executive Order 109, appointing the Attorney General as the special prosecutor for auto insurance fraud. Since 2002, AIFU has brought felony charges against hundreds of defendants, including doctors, lawyers, healthcare providers, steerers, lay people, and hospital employees. AIFU continues to investigate and prosecute no-fault fraud and other types of auto insurance fraud.

The qualifications for this position are: experience conducting stationary and moving surveillance; experience interviewing witnesses; experience conducting auto related organized crime and insurance fraud investigations; experience preparing and executing search warrants; experience sitting wiretaps; supervisory experience; certification as NYS firearms instructor; and, established contacts within the law enforcement community in the New York City area.

Please respond to posting number #9328, as outlined below. Deadline for responding is August 10, 2013.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

Must have at least ten years of law enforcement experience and current NYS basic police school certification.

All candidates must reside in New York State at the time of appointment.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends.
