

Investigator: Auto Insurance Fraud Unit (AIFU) – New York City

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for Investigator positions located in various locations in the State. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

In 2001, in response to the increase in no-fault insurance fraud, the governor signed Executive Order 109, appointing the Attorney General as the special prosecutor for auto insurance fraud. Since 2002, AIFU has brought felony charges against over 380 defendants, including doctors, lawyers, healthcare providers, steerers, lay people, and hospital employees. AIFU continues to investigate and prosecute no-fault fraud and other types of auto insurance fraud.

This position leads the AIFU/Computer Forensic Investigations Team, which provides tactical support to AIFU Investigators. The qualifications for this position are: Experience conducting undercover investigations; experience in threat assessment; ability to fluently speak, read, write, translate and transcribe conversations in Russian; Bachelor's degree in a law enforcement field and a minimum of one year of college level computer courses; three or more years of experience at the supervisory level in computer operations; having established contacts within the law enforcement community in the New York City area.

Must be willing to complete requirements, which involves many hours of self-study, to become a Certified Forensic Computer Examiner.

Please respond to posting number #9329, as outlined below. Deadline for responding is April 11, 2014.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

Must have at least ten years of law enforcement experience and current NYS basic police school certification.

All candidates must reside in New York State at the time of appointment.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends.
