

Investigator: Auto Insurance Fraud Unit (AIFU) – New York City

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for Investigator positions located in various locations in the State. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

In 2001, in response to the increase in no-fault insurance fraud, the governor signed Executive Order 109, appointing the Attorney General as the special prosecutor for auto insurance fraud. Since 2002, AIFU has brought felony charges against hundreds of defendants, including doctors, lawyers, healthcare providers, steerers, lay people, and hospital employees. AIFU continues to investigate and prosecute no-fault fraud and other types of auto insurance fraud.

The qualifications for this position are: Expertise in major case management; experience in planning and conducting surveillance; experience in interviewing and interrogation; experience conducting investigations involving organized crime activities, chop shops, altered VIN and stolen vehicles; familiarity with the Motor Vehicle investigative database; experience executing search warrants and conducting undercover operations; having established contacts within the law enforcement community in the New York City area.

Please respond to posting number #9340, as outlined below. Deadline for responding is November 8, 2013.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

Must have at least ten years of law enforcement and current NYS Basic Course for Police Officers certification.

All candidates must reside in New York State at the time of appointment.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends.
