

Supervising Investigator: Investigations – New York City

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for Investigator positions located in various locations in the State. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

Investigators, under supervision, conduct detailed investigations of the circumstances, facts and conditions connected with complaints and violations of the law, using the highest level of independent judgment and discretion. These are often highly complex and sensitive criminal matters which cross county lines and involve organized crime.

This position performs investigations primarily in both the Public Integrity Bureau and the Criminal Enforcement & Financial Crimes Bureau but may also be assigned cases in various other bureaus throughout the Office of the Attorney General. The qualifications for this specific position include: Supervision experience holding rank of Detective Sergeant or equivalent, with experience in administrative duties such as detailed report writing, maintaining a budget, etc.; the ability to effectively conduct and manage sensitive investigations; experience performing electronic eavesdropping of subjects; experience supervising and conducting dignitary protection; experience interacting with other law enforcement agencies; and knowledge of New York City and surrounding area, having law enforcement contacts in that area.

Please respond to posting number #9421, as outlined below. Deadline for responding is May 19, 2015.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

Must have at least ten years of law enforcement and current NYS basic police school certification.

Must possess a valid NYS driver's license and have the ability to drive a vehicle.

The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends.
