

Supervising Investigator: Organized Crime Task Force (OCTF) – Buffalo

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for Investigator positions located in various locations in the State. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

The role of the OCTF is to conduct complex, long term investigations into various types of organized criminal activity. The majority of the Unit's investigations utilize advanced and specialized investigative techniques such as physical surveillance, court authorized eavesdropping of telephones, businesses, vehicles, and computers, as well as search warrants, which include the use of still and video photography. The nature of the investigations conducted by OCTF includes traditional organized crime - gambling, loan sharking, extortion, and narcotics, among others.

The qualifications for this position are: experience conducting narcotic investigations including electronic and physical monitoring and surveillance, wire taps, and working with confidential informants; training in criminal analysis; extensive research and interviewing skills; experience with dignitary protection; established contacts between the federal, state and local law enforcement agencies in the U.S. and Canada.

Please respond to posting number #8102, as outlined below. Deadline for responding is June 10, 2013.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

Must have at least ten years of law enforcement experience and current NYS basic police school certification.

All candidates must reside in New York State at the time of appointment.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends.
