

OFFICE OF THE NEW YORK STATE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Division of Criminal Justice

Taxpayer Protection Bureau - New York City - Assistant Attorney General Reference No. TPB_AAG_NYC_2015_3

The Office of the New York State Attorney General's Taxpayer Protection Bureau, based primarily in New York City, is seeking experienced litigators to lead and pursue complex civil fraud investigations and litigation, utilizing the New York State False Claims Act and other laws. Cases focus on claims of fraud that victimize the state and local governments, including fraud in procurement programs, taxes, and grant programs. Our investigations regularly involve coordination with other state and federal agencies.

Applicants should have substantial experience conducting civil and/or criminal investigations and handling litigation in state and federal courts. Criminal prosecution experience is a plus and experience with tax matters is also a plus.

Candidates must possess excellent analytical, writing, research and organizational skills and a minimum of six (6) years of practical experience.

Attorneys in the Office must be admitted to practice in New York State. In addition, the Public Officers Law requires that attorneys in the Office be citizens of the United States and reside in (or intend to soon become a resident of) New York State.

Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply. The Office is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to workplace diversity.

Please submit a cover letter, resume, three (3) references, including their email addresses, and a recent writing sample to: Sandra Jefferson Grannum, Esq., Bureau Chief, Legal Recruitment Bureau, Office of the New York State Attorney General, 120 Broadway, New York, NY 10271 or recruitment@ag.ny.gov. Submission via email is preferred. Please indicate Reference No. TPB_AAG_NYC_2015_3 and the position in your cover letter.
