Dear Mr. Mack:

Enclosed please find a copy of the newly updated and adopted Code of Ethics for the Town of Hopewell, Ontario County, in the State of New York per your request. I apologize for the delay. After receiving your first request, it was evident that the town needed to review and update its existing Code of Ethics. The enclosed copy was adopted on February 1, 2012, by the Hopewell Town Board by resolution.

Please note that we chose to refer to the Ontario County Board of Ethics for advisement versus establishing a Town Board of Ethics. This is listed under Section 18 of the enclosed copy.

If I can be of any further assistance please contact me.

Very truly yours,

Margaret Hilton
Supervisor, Town of Hopewell

Pursuant to the provisions of 806 of the General Municipal Law, the Town Board of the Town of Hopewell, recognizes that there are rules of ethical conduct for public officers and employees which must be observed if a high degree of moral conduct is to be obtained and if public confidence is to be maintained in our unit of local government. It is the purpose of this code to promulgate these rules of ethical conduct for the officers and employees of the Town of Hopewell. These rules shall serve as a guide for official conduct of the officers and employees of the Town of Hopewell.

Officers and employees of the Town of Hopewell hold their positions to serve and benefit the public, and not for obtaining unwarranted personal or private gain in the exercise and performance of their official powers and duties. The rules of ethical conduct, shall not conflict with, but shall be in addition to any prohibition of article eighteen of the General Municipal Law or any other general or special law relating to ethical conduct and interest in contracts of municipal officer and employees. The Town of Hopewell recognizes that, in furtherance of this fundamental principle, there is a need for clear and reasonable standards of ethical conduct. This code of ethics establishes those standards.

Section 16 Confidential Information

- a.  2. as a reward for official action when the gift is from a private person or organization that has obtained municipal action involving the exercise of discretion by or with the participation of the officer or employee during the preceding twelve months.

- f. This section does not prohibit any other gift, including
1. gifts made to the municipality;
 2. gifts from a person with a family or personal relationship with the officer or employee when the circumstances make it clear that the personal relationship, rather than the recipient's status as a municipal officer or employee, is the primary motivating factor for the gift;
 3. gifts given on special occasions, such as marriage, illness, or retirement, which are modest, reasonable and customary;
 4. unsolicited advertising or promotional material of little intrinsic value, such as pens, pencils, note pads, and calendars;
 5. awards and plaques having a value of seventy-five dollars or less which are publicly presented in recognition of service as a municipal officer or employee, or other service to the community; or
 6. meals and refreshments provided when a municipal officer or employee is a speaker or participant at a job-related professional or educational conference or program and the meals and refreshments are made available to all participants.
