

OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

CIVIL RIGHTS BUREAU

IN THE MATTER OF THE INVESTIGATION OF
ANDREW M. CUOMO, ATTORNEY GENERAL OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,

AOD No. 10-096

ASSURANCE OF DISCONTINUANCE

The Office of the Attorney General of the State of New York (“OAG”), pursuant to New York State Executive Law § 63(12), conducted an investigation of certain policies, procedures, and practices of Arthur C. Hurwitz (“Hurwitz”), an individual primarily engaged in the business of providing immigration-related services for a fee in New York State.

Specifically, the OAG investigated whether Hurwitz, in violation of New York State Executive Law § 63(12); New York State General Business Law (“GBL”) §§ 349, and 460-a et seq.; New York State Judiciary Law § 478; New York State Human Rights Law § 296(2)(a); New York City Human Rights Law § 8-107(4); and New York City Immigration Service Provider Law § 20-770 et seq., engaged in unlawful business practices, including the unauthorized practice of law in New York State, by providing immigration-related services to members of the public.

FINDINGS

Introduction and Background

2. New York State residents seeking assistance in immigration matters may retain the services of a licensed attorney or a recognized organization authorized by the United States Board of Immigration Appeals (“BIA”) to provide such assistance. For clerical services only, New York State residents may retain the services of non-attorneys, also known as “immigrant assistance service providers” (“IASPs”).
3. IASPs are regulated by N.Y. Gen. Bus. Law §§ 460-a through 460-j and, if in New York City, IASPs are also regulated by Local Law 31, § 20-770 et seq. The law seeks to prevent individuals from preying on immigrant communities by claiming to have legal authorization to handle immigration matters. As a result, IASPs are restricted to providing solely clerical services, such as completing immigration forms based on information provided by the immigrant customer, translating documents, and mailing documents on behalf of customers to the required government agencies for processing. Further, New York State (“State”) and New York City (“City”) law requires IASPs to comply with certain advertising guidelines, signage and surety requirements, as well as provide customers with written contracts in both English and a language that the customer can understand.
4. IASPs are legally prohibited from providing any legal services, including giving legal advice to customers on what form of immigration relief they should be seeking or what immigration forms to complete and file, or appearing in immigration court or before officials with the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (“USCIS”).

5. Additionally, State and City law prohibits IASPs from charging any fees for referring a customer to another person or entity that is qualified to provide legal immigration services, such as an attorney or an organization accredited by the BIA. IASPs also are prohibited from charging referral fees in the form of membership fees.
6. In addition to the State and City requirements, Federal law regulates who may represent immigrants in immigration court and who may appear on behalf of immigrants before other immigration authorities such as the USCIS. The USCIS requires that representatives of immigrants complete and file a “Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Representative” (Form G-28). Only attorneys and accredited representatives of organizations recognized by the BIA as defined in 8 C.F.R. §§ 103.2 and 292.1 may file Form G-28. An individual may obtain accreditation only through an organization recognized by the BIA. The organization must submit documentation showing that it has knowledge, information and experience in immigration and nationality law and procedure. Further, the organization must certify through the application process that the individual seeking accreditation, among other things, is a person of good moral character and will only charge or accept a nominal fee set by the organization through which the individual gains his or her accreditation.

Attorney General’s Investigation

7. The OAG received information that Hurwitz engaged in unlawful business practices, including but not limited to fraud, the unauthorized practice of law, and making false promises and misrepresentations to customers concerning their immigration-related matters.

8. The OAG issued a subpoena to Hurwitz for documents and testimony relating to his business practices. The OAG reviewed documents including immigration petitions, correspondence, client files and financial statements.

Unauthorized Practice of the Law

9. The OAG investigation confirmed that Hurwitz is not licensed to practice law in the State of New York, and is not authorized or accredited to provide legal assistance to anyone with immigration-related matters. Nonetheless, Hurwitz represented to customers that he was authorized to provide legal immigration assistance.

Violations of the New York State and New York City Immigration Services Provider Law

10. In violation of GBL §§ 460-a through 460-j and Judiciary Law § 478, Hurwitz engaged in the unauthorized practice of law by advising customers in immigration matters, such as instructing customers on which immigration forms to complete and file with the immigration authorities in order to obtain certain immigration benefits and advising customers on the best course of action for their immigration matters.
11. Hurwitz also engaged in fraud and illegality by misleading the public indicating that he was authorized to provide legal services when in fact Hurwitz was charging fees for work handled by non-attorneys.
12. In addition, the OAG's investigation revealed that Hurwitz failed to comply with the requirements of providing immigration assistance services as required by GBL § 460-a et seq. and NYC Immigration Service Provider Law § 20-770 et seq.
13. Hurwitz repeatedly failed to provide customers with written contracts, in both the English language and a language the customers could understand, that include disclosures and information required by GBL § 460-b. Specifically, the law requires contracts to include, in both English and the language understood by the customers, an itemization of all services to be provided, a list of fees, and language informing customers of their right to cancel the contract within three (3) business days without any penalties or fees.

14. Hurwitz also failed to display signs in his place of business, as required by GBL § 460-c, alerting customers of their right to cancel the contract within three (3) business days without penalty and alerting individuals that Hurwitz is not a law office, cannot provide legal advice, and is not authorized to represent individuals before immigration authorities. Hurwitz failed to display these signs in English and in other languages customers used as required by law.
15. Hurwitz also failed to provide customers with copies of every document filed on their behalf with immigration authorities as required by GBL § 460-e (7).
16. Hurwitz also failed to secure a surety bond payable to the People of the State of New York, and in an amount determinable by the income received from providing Immigration Services, as required by GBL § 460-g.
17. Similarly, Hurwitz failed to comply with the provisions of the New York City Immigration Service Provider Law § 20-770 et seq., which mirror GBL § 460-a et seq.

Accordingly, the OAG has concluded that there is sufficient evidence to support a claim that Hurwitz violated New York General Business Law § 349, New York General Business Law § 460-a et seq., New York Judiciary Law § 478, and New York Executive Law §§ 63(12) and 290 et seq.

PROSPECTIVE RELIEF

WHEREAS, New York Executive Law § 63(12); New York General Business Law §§ 349, and 460-a et seq.; New York City Immigration Service Provider Law; New York Judiciary Law Article 15; and New York State and New York City Civil Rights Laws, prohibit, among other things: (1) individuals not admitted or registered as attorneys within New York State from practicing law, including but not limited to giving legal advice; (2) individuals from providing immigration services without the proper surety bond made out to the People of the State of New York and the People of the City of New York, and signs stating the provider is not an attorney, contracts in both the English language and a language the customers can understand; and (3) any conduct targeting a community because of that community's alienage, ethnicity, national origin and/or citizenship status;

WHEREAS, the OAG's investigation involved reviewing documents, pursuant to subpoena duces tecum from Hurwitz;

WHEREAS, Hurwitz neither admits nor denies the OAG's Findings;

WHEREAS, the OAG is willing to accept the terms of this Assurance pursuant to New York Executive Law § 63(15) and to discontinue its investigation of Hurwitz; and

WHEREAS, the parties believe that the obligations imposed by this Assurance are prudent and appropriate;

IT IS HEREBY UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED, by and between Hurwitz and the OAG, as follows:

Entities Bound by Assurance

18. This Assurance binds Hurwitz, his successors, assigns, "a/k/a" companies, "d/b/a" companies, and any other business entities whom any such individuals may hereafter form or control.

Monetary Payment

19. Hurwitz shall pay a total of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) to the State of New York to resolve this investigation.
20. Payment of the twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) shall be made on the Effective Date of this Assurance in the form of a wire transfer, or a certified or bank check made out to the New York State Department of Law and forwarded to the Office of Attorney General, Civil Rights Bureau, 120 Broadway, 23rd Floor, New York, New York 10271, Attention: Alphonso B. David, Special Deputy Attorney General for Civil Rights. Any payments and all correspondence related to this Assurance must reference AOD No. 10-096.

Confession of Judgment

21. Hurwitz agrees to execute an Affidavit of Confession of Judgment ("Confession of Judgment") (attached as Exhibit A) upon the signing of this Assurance. The Confession of Judgment will be held in escrow and may be filed if Hurwitz fails to make the payment as set forth in Paragraph 20 of this Assurance. If the payment has not been made pursuant to this Assurance within thirty (30) days of the Effective Date, the OAG has the right to move to enforce the Judgment without further notice to Hurwitz or his counsel.

- (b) a statement that Hurwitz has agreed to stop offering and providing immigration services effective immediately and indicating the date when the office will be officially closed;
- (c) a statement that the customer has the right to obtain their file from Hurwitz (including the time and place the request for files may be made and whether requests may be made by phone, facsimile or e-mail), or may request that Hurwitz, at Hurwitz's expense, mail the files to the customer;
- (d) a statement that immigration matters are time-sensitive and the customer should promptly seek the assistance of an immigration attorney, an accredited organization or other authorized immigration service provider;
- (e) a phone number where clients may contact a representative of Hurwitz until the dissolution of the business is complete with questions about their cases and any documents in connection with their files;
- (f) a notice that a monetary fund has been created to compensate customers who are entitled to a refund of their money (attached as Exhibit B);
- (g) a notice that Hurwitz may not refer customers to any attorneys; and
- (h) an attachment of the list of BIA and pro-bono accredited organizations provided to Hurwitz by the OAG.

23. Hurwitz shall, within three (3) days of the Effective Date, forward the draft letter as required by Paragraph 22 along with translations of the letter, to the OAG for approval.
24. Within ten (10) days of the Effective Date, Hurwitz shall identify the files of customers who may have upcoming deadlines or pending hearing dates in their cases. The sign shall be no smaller than 18" x 22" and in 60-point type and be translated into any language spoken by the customers who received immigration services from Hurwitz. Hurwitz shall submit a copy of the sign to be posted for approval to the OAG.
26. Within five (5) days of the Effective Date, Hurwitz shall also post a sign in each place of business alerting customers that they may file a complaint with the OAG if they believe they have been a victim of immigration fraud (attached as Exhibit C).

Advertising

27. Within seven (7) days of the Effective Date, Hurwitz shall send a notice to all applicable communication outlets, including but not limited to, newspapers, television and radio stations and web-based outlets, canceling any future written and/or oral advertisements, whether in English or any other language in which Hurwitz advertised. Prior to mailing such notice, Hurwitz shall submit it to the OAG for approval.

Cease and Desist Operations

28. Hurwitz shall cease and desist from operating any business which provides immigration services to customers including, but not limited to, assisting customers in completing required forms and affidavits for submission to the USCIS or other government agencies.

29. Hurwitz shall maintain the following records during the duration of the Assurance:

- (a) All documents concerning the letter and other communication Hurwitz has with customers as required by Paragraphs 22 and 24;

Penalties

31. If the OAG finds evidence that Hurwitz failed to comply with the applicable laws or any provision of this Assurance, Hurwitz shall pay a penalty to the OAG of five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each instance of noncompliance, including but not limited to, failing to cease and desist to conduct an immigration services business as required by Paragraph 30 or send letters to customers as required by Paragraph 28 and an additional five hundred dollars ($500.00) per day where instances of noncompliance are not rectified.
32. Individuals may submit complaints alleging that Hurwitz has engaged in unlawful conduct or failed to comply with applicable laws. If an individual brings such a complaint directly to Hurwitz, Hurwitz shall forward the complaint to the OAG within two (2) days of receiving such complaint.

SCOPE OF THE ASSURANCE, JURISDICTION, AND ENFORCEMENT PROVISIONS

33. The OAG has agreed to the terms of this Assurance based on, among other things, the representations made to the OAG by Hurwitz and his counsel and the OAG's own factual investigation as set forth in Findings 2-17 above. To the extent that any material representations are later found to be inaccurate or misleading, this Assurance is voidable by the OAG in its sole discretion. Unless another time period is provided with respect to particular relief being agreed upon, this Assurance will expire three (3) years after the Effective Date.
34. Notwithstanding any provision of this Assurance to the contrary, the OAG may, in its sole discretion, grant written requests for extensions of time for Hurwitz to comply with any provision of this Assurance upon a good-faith determination that Hurwitz has not complied with this Assurance, which non-compliance the OAG will discuss and attempt to resolve with Hurwitz in good-faith before making such determination.

35. The signatories to this Assurance warrant and represent that they are duly authorized to execute this Assurance and that they have the authority to take all appropriate action required or permitted to be taken pursuant to this Assurance to effectuate its terms.
36. No representation, inducement, promise, understanding, condition, or warranty not set forth in this Assurance has been made to or relied upon by Hurwitz in agreeing to this Assurance.
37. The OAG may seek to enforce this Assurance through enforcement proceedings including a civil action in federal or state court seeking appropriate relief, such as specific performance of the provisions of this Assurance. Pursuant to New York State Executive Law § 63(15), evidence of a violation of the Assurance will constitute prima facie proof of a violation of the applicable laws in any civil action or proceeding hereafter commenced by the OAG. In the event of a dispute among the parties regarding any issue arising hereunder, the parties will attempt in good faith to resolve the dispute before seeking judicial intervention.
38. If a court of competent jurisdiction determines that Hurwitz has breached this Assurance, Hurwitz shall pay to the OAG the cost, if any, of such determination and of enforcing this Assurance, including, without limitation, legal fees, expenses, and court costs.
39. Any failure by the OAG to enforce this entire Assurance or any provision thereof with respect to any deadline or any other provision herein shall not be construed as a waiver of the OAG's right to enforce other deadlines and provisions of this Assurance.

40. If any provision, term, or clause of this Assurance is declared illegal, unenforceable, or ineffective in a legal forum, such provision, term, or clause shall be deemed severable, such that all other provisions, terms, and clauses of this Assurance shall remain valid and binding on the parties.
41. This Assurance constitutes the entire agreement between Hurwitz and the OAG on the matters raised herein, and no other statement, promise or agreement, either written or oral, made by either party or agents of either party that is not contained in this Assurance shall be enforceable.
42. Nothing in this Assurance is intended to, nor shall, limit the OAG's investigatory or compliance review powers otherwise provided by law or this Assurance.
43. Nothing in this Assurance shall be construed to prevent any individual from pursuing any right or remedy under the law.
44. This Assurance may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which shall be deemed a duplicate original.
45. This Assurance is final and binding on the parties, including principals, directors, beneficial owners, officers, shareholders, agents and representatives, successors in interest, assigns, "d/b/a companies," "a/k/a companies," affiliates, subsidiaries, legal representatives thereof, and any other business entities whom any such individuals may hereafter form or control. No assignment by any party hereto shall operate to relieve such party of its obligations herewith.
46. Hurwitz represents and warrants, through the signatures below, that the terms and conditions of this Assurance are duly approved, and execution of this Assurance is duly authorized. Hurwitz agrees not to take any action or to make or permit to be made any public statement denying, directly or indirectly, any finding in this Assurance or creating the impression that this Assurance is without factual basis. Nothing in this paragraph affects Hurwitz's (a) testimonial obligations; or (b) right to take legal or factual positions in defense of litigation or other legal proceedings to which the Attorney General is not a party.

47. This Assurance may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of all the parties to this Assurance.
48. This Assurance shall be binding on and inure to the benefit of the parties to this Assurance and their respective successors and assigns, provided that no party, other than the OAG, may assign, delegate, or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations under this Assurance without the prior written consent of the OAG.
49. Any payments and all correspondence related to this Assurance shall reference the OAG Assurance Number AOD 10-096.
