

Investigator: Auto Insurance Fraud Unit (AIFU) – New York City

The Office of the Attorney General is seeking qualified candidates for Investigator positions located in various locations in the State. Candidates should be hard-working, motivated and committed to public service on behalf of the people of the State of New York.

In 2001, in response to the increase in no-fault insurance fraud, the governor signed Executive Order 109, appointing the Attorney General as the special prosecutor for auto insurance fraud. Since 2002, AIFU has brought felony charges against hundreds of defendants, including doctors, lawyers, healthcare providers, steerers, lay people, and hospital employees. AIFU continues to investigate and prosecute no-fault fraud and other types of auto insurance fraud.

The qualifications for this position are: Experience conducting surveillance and investigating highly confidential cases; experience investigating pattern crimes; experience interviewing witnesses, executing search warrants and sitting wiretaps; experience debriefing prisoners with the purpose of obtaining information; having established contacts within the law enforcement community in the New York City area. Auto insurance fraud experience preferred.

Please respond to posting number #9325, as outlined below. Deadline for responding is April 16, 2015.

Qualifications in addition to those listed above:

Must have at least ten years of law enforcement and current NYS basic police school certification.

Must possess a valid NYS driver's license and have the ability to drive a vehicle.

The Public Officer's Law requires that police officers at the OAG be citizens of the United States and reside in New York State.

Performance of the duties may require frequent, unscheduled work on evenings and weekends.
